Chevron are blocked out of their terminal and congested. Earliest right now is the 17th. They will look at their schedule in the morning and see if any earlier slots have opened up.

What is your minimum? Can you take HSFO as an alternative?

Did Chevron come back with anything? Minimum qty would be nice.

No, but I will check. Maybe we can defer to Rainier (o/a 28 Oct).

Reverting soon.

Hi Nick,

Chevron is still checking their schedule but looking like 17th is the earliest. Will the ship be able to wait?
